He Called a Halt.

At a recent wedding in Boston, a young authoress who is still old enough to be married, in response to some playful taunt, turned to the little eight-year-old son of a friend standing near. "Franz, dear," said the lady, "won't you marry me? Do say you'll have me and I'll write you a book every year." To everybody's surprise the little fellow considered a moment, and then replied: "There are plenty of other books to read, and there are too many men marrying women older than themselves nowadays." The well-bred murmur of laughter that greeted this reply was shared by the merry young writer, as the recent discussion regarding the matrimonial ventures of two artists had evidently made an impression on the young man who proposed to stop the thing right there.—Ex.

A Sound Legal Opinion.

E. Bainbridge Mundy, esq., County Atty., Clay county, Texas, says: "Have used Electric Bitters with most happy results. My brother was also very low with Malarial Fever and Jaundice, but was cured by timely use of this medicine. Am satisfied Electric Bitters saved his life." Mr. D. L. Wilcoxon, of Horse Cave, Ky., adds a like testimony, saying: "He positively believes he would have died, had it not been for Electric Bitters." This great remedy will ward off, as well as cure all Malarial Diseases, and for all Kidney, Liver and Stomach disorders stands unequalled. Price 50c and $1 at W. C. Gaston & Co's.

It is said that the board of trade of an enterprising town in Kansas recently purchased 2,000 copies of the Bible, printed a map of the city on the fly leaf, ran a description of the country around the margin of the book of Genesis, put "inducements to capitalists" in green around Pauline, and cards of real estate dealers in blue at the beginning of each book all through the New Testament, and sent volumes east as boom literature. And it is further said that when a poor deluded man over in Illinois read in the good book "In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth," he exclaimed as natural as life, "that's another Kansas lie!"

Don't Experiment.

You cannot afford to waste time in experimenting when your lungs are in danger. Consumption always seems at first, only a cold. Do not permit any dealer to impose upon you with some cheap imitation of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, but be sure you get the genuine. Because he can make more profit he may tell you he has something just as good, or just the same. Don't be deceived but insist upon getting Dr. King's New Discovery, which is guaranteed to give relief in all Throat, Lung and Chest affections. Trial bottles free at W. C. Gaston & Co's. Drug Store.

Beware!

Notice is hereby given that any person or persons found trespassing, hunting or otherwise, within my enclosures will be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law. I have had three hogs killed and a cow shot, and it is about time to call a halt upon such serious and fatal trespasses.
Wm. E. Hull.

A Useful Bantam.

A hen belonging to Mr. C. F. Davis, of this city, had a brood of twelve or fifteen chickens. But the mother hen yielded up the ghost at the command of chicken cholera, leaving her wee chicks orphans. Mr. Bantam took in the situation at once, scratched lustily to find juicy bugs for the little birds, led them from place to place and, when they were tired, hovered over them like a kind mother, though the little fellow had to literally "spread himself" to accommodate the crowd. If this is not humanity, it is certainly above brute instinct. —Moberly Monitor.

Consumption Surely Cured.

To THE EDITOR.—Please inform your readers that I have a positive remedy for the above named disease. By its timely use thousands of hopeless cases have been permanently cured. I shall be glad to send two bottles of my remedy FREE to any of your readers who have consumption if they will send me their express and post-office address. Respectfully, T. A. SLOCUM, M. C., 181 Pearl St., New York. 41m6.

The Peoria, Ills., Democrat preaches of the funeral of Republicanism in pathetic but forcible language:—"In Illinois we have seen a convention of Republican clubs rent with dissensions; split into factions; young ideas fed upon fragments of the bloody shirt; aspirations chilled under the blight of issues that died twenty years ago; inquiring lips struck with the iron hand of bossism—all part of a political saturnalia that precedes a party's doom. The whole fact of the matter is that the Republican party is demoralized to the verge of disbandment."

HON. C. H. MANSUR's speech on the tariff bill, delivered on the 8th, has elicited as much applause from his colleagues and the country at large as did his dissertation on the Oklahoma question. Mr. Mansur now has a well founded claim as a leader in the house of representatives, in the language of many of our exchanges.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she clung to Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

ATTORNEYS WAIT, John on, Chapman, and Lewis, of Chillicothe, have filed with the city recorder and served a petition contesting the election of Alderman Luke, in the Third ward of that city, and demanding that Williams (colored) be admitted to the seat to which Mr. Lake was elected.

The offer of $10,000 reward for the capture of Tascott, the murderer of Millionsire Snell, of Chicago, has expired by limitation. Notwithstanding the dozens of arrests made all over the country the real Tascott is still at large.

In the vicinity of Waterloo, Ia., up to the 10th, rain had fallen on fifty consecutive days, the rainfall being over seven inches. The precipitation was general all over Northern Iowa.

Gambling.

Governor Morehouse says that he will recommend to the legislature next winter a bill to abolish grain gambling.—New Florence Optic.

It is the only issue between the two men, and upon it Gov. Morehouse will be triumphantly nominated.—Mexico Intelligencer.

If the "gamblers in grain" should pay no more attention to such a law than Governor Morehouse does to the law now in existence against gambling with cards, it would not be very effective.—Mexico Ledger.

Yes, but Morehouse's gambling effects nobody but himself, while Francis, as a grain gambler, plays sad havoc to the interests of every farmer in the state who raises grain.

A RECENT chemical examination of several prominent brands of "family lard" showed them to be variously constituted of different ingredients, and in one case not a trace of real lard could be found in the sample analyzed. A prominent lard manufacturer testified before the senate committee on agriculture, at Washington, a few days ago, that so far as he knew the lard thus manufactured is more popular with the people than the genuine article is.

EDITOR FINNEY, of the Winstead, (Conn.) Press, retires from journalism without any nonsense. In his "valedictory" he says: "From the customary leave takings of the public, with hypocritical laudation and cheap thanks for 'general patronage,' I must be excused. I thank the public for nothing. It has had ample return for all that it has done for me, and I give it a quit claim for all that I have done for it."

It has been generally thought that the first gun of the great civil war was that fired on Fort Sumter, while other accounts have been given the doubtful honor to a battery at Pensacola harbor, in Florida, where Admiral Porter, then but a lieutenant, distinguished himself by re-enforcing the United States garrison with extraordinary vigor and promptitude before the actual outbreak of the civil war.

When the senate got to work in the early part of last week Mr. Stewart offered a bill proposing an amendment to the constitution of the United States so as to reduce from two-thirds to a majority the vote in each house overriding presidential vetoes. He remarked that the time had come for such a change, and that he would, at a convenient time, make some remarks on the subject.

The sentence of John Bogard, the youthful accomplice of Charles C. Myers in the murder of James Wier, at Independence, has been commuted by Governor Morehouse to life imprisonment in the state penitentiary. No official notification to that effect has been received by the authorities in Kansas City, but it is known that the sentence has been commuted.

Down at Mexico a mule colt lost its mother, and a friendly cow, with the milk of bovine kindness flowing freely, adopted the little orphan and is supplying the place of the colt's mother. It is said the young mule has taken to the cow as naturally as a duck takes to water.

It is estimated that the sum spent on new buildings in this country last year was $2,600,000,000, and that the transfers of real estate amounted to $10,000,000,000.
